

Excerpt from Journal

11 August 1958

Delivered to Carl Marcy, Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, a memorandum on the proposed transfer of the two radio transmitters to AMCOMLIB. I attempted to impress on Marcy the importance of this from our viewpoint as well as the security aspects. Mr. Marcy promised to do what he could but said he could promise us nothing in view of the fact that tomorrow might be the last meeting of the Committee.
